Manager's Message

By Brian Mitchell

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Here we are in 2022 looking back at one busy year and looking forward to another! It never seems to slow down. Time just keep zooming by more quickly it seems. This issue cover includes a collage of projects completed this year. Reserve projects totaling $418,000 were completed to maintain and improve Nellie Gail Ranch amenities. Of that amount assessments paid for less than half with 52% of reserve expenses being paid with recreation center memberships in equestrian, tennis, pickleball and swim.

We approach each project completed on behalf of our membership with the goal of improving value and function. At the Tennis Center we replaced old style water coolers with modern hydration stations for better use with flasks we all use now. To improve use of the park benches at Hidden Trail Park we installed pavers under the benches. And one of our premier projects was renovation of the Equestrian Center Clubhouse that included replacement of all restroom fixtures and partitions, new tile flooring, a new kitchen and appliances and new furnishings. (A special thank you goes out to the Equestrian Committee Members current and past who had an extensive role in this project.) We also painted the Equestrian Clubhouse exterior, painted the hay barn and replaced Barn D stall doors.

Some projects extend life of components. We implemented repairs to the pool equipment this year that don't make for good cover photos but serve to keep the pool operational for our membership. We also stained the wood lentils on the clubhouse building to keep the wood conditioned. The plywood floor of the trailer that holds our dance floor and stage was replaced with plywood and tread plate for improved strength. We replaced wood stairways at the Equestrian Center, resurfaced park basketball courts, replaced volleyball court sand and installed a new gate on Nellie Gail Road for emergency egress from the Equestrian Center.

Additionally, our horse residents received something too. New footing and kickboards at the Dapple Grey Arena and new footing at the Dressage Arena as well as an improved trail along the Oso fence line between Moulton and Nellie Gail Road.

While the license plate recognition cameras were not a reserve project, it was a substantive project completed in October as approved by a vote of the Nellie Gail Ranch Membership.

2022 will be equally active with projects benefiting all Nellie Gail Ranch homeowners. The Hidden Trail Park playground is due for delivery and installation early January. And most exciting of all is the pending completion of the Clubhouse restrooms and bar / kitchen buildout. Our next issue will include lots more information on that exciting completion!!

We wish our Nellie Gail Ranch families a safe and prosperous new year in 2022 !!

WHAT'S TO COME IN 2022

By Brian Mitchell

The Managers Message in this issue focused on 2021 projects. The following will give you some highlights of what is to come in 2022.

It seems the phrase of the day is "supply chain". Our current projects have each been impacted in some way by the supply chain delays. The Hidden Trail Park playground equipment was on a 14 week lead time. The playground is currently scheduled for January install. Our restroom project was slowed down by lead times on tile, restroom partitions and urinal flush valves of all things. The kitchen project had long lead times for all appliances ranging from 8 to 16 weeks. We are currently anticipating a February opening!! More will be shared soon as we approach completion of this project as it will provide great new ways for our neighbors to meet and interact and socialize.

Other areas of focus in 2022 will include the following:

- Recent wind events knocked down a number of trees. We will be replacing trees as needed.
- Trail grading and fence replacements as needed
- Association Arena Footing as needed
- Rec Center Spa Replaster
- Pool Area Deck Mastic
- Tennis Court Resurfacing

These are just some of the projects on our radar. However, if you see something you would like for us to address, we are always open to adjusting our focus to meet community needs. E-mail photos and requests to admin@nelliegailranch.org.

Honeybee Hives

By Pamela Fraser, California Master Beekeeper

In April of 2018, the city of Laguna Hills began allowing residents in Estate Residential property (which includes Nellie Gail Ranch) to have up to four beehives on their property. (Subject to registering hives with the City) This is wonderful news for those of us who love keeping bees to pollinate our fruits, flowers, trees, and vegetables, and those who love tending bees, and receiving the sweet rewards of fresh honey from their very own hive/s.

If you are in the process of contemplating having a hive or hives in your backyard, it would be valuable to get training. See the below link for an Introduction to Bee Keeping Seminar on January 19, 2022 from 7p.m. to 9p.m.

A good beekeeper should take responsibility for maintaining a healthy apiary by providing regular hive inspections and looking for signs of overcrowding, evidence of pests, parasites, diseases, robbing and swarming. In addition, maintaining a healthy apiary requires providing a source of water, excluding your neighbor's pool. Re-queening each hive may be necessary if the queen is no longer productive. It may sound a bit overwhelming, but it's not.

Taking classes and attending bee clubs are a wonderful way to meet like-minded folks, and exchange ideas or discover solutions to issues that you may be experiencing with one or more of your hives.

Keeping honeybees is a unique and rewarding hobby. Becoming a beekeeper is easy and safe. And it's a great hobby for the entire family. If you're a gardener, you'll treasure the extra bounty that pollinating bees bring to your fruits, flowers, and vegetables.

The beginning of 2022 is an excellent time to register your hive/s with the city and take a couple of local and/or on-line Beekeeping classes. To get started, attend the class offered at the Nellie Gail Ranch Clubhouse on January 19th, where you will not only learn about keeping healthy hive/s, but we'll walk you through the process of obtaining a permit. The success of beekeeping in Laguna Hills is dependent upon responsible beekeepers utilizing good management practices.

Swim Center News

Happy New Year everyone! I wish you and your family a healthy and prosperous 2022. The new year is always an exciting time for us because it gives us an opportunity to reflect & learn from the previous year while turning our attention to the year that is ahead of us. The Evolution Swim Academy team met in early December to set the program calendar for Nellie Gail Ranch and I'm excited about what we will be offering the children of Nellie Gail Ranch and surrounding communities.

In 2022, we will be offering some of our traditional programs while adding a new program. I am happy to announce that our new program will be a Junior Guard Prep program for families who would like for their children to participate in Junior Guards during the summer. Each Junior Guard program in south county has minimum requirements, one of which is to swim four laps of freestyle under a certain time. Generally, Junior Guard programs will require swimmers to swim four laps under 2:30, with some requiring swimmers to swim under 2:00. Our Junior Guard Prep program will offer swimmers four weeks of swimming, Monday-Thursday, for 45 minutes. This program will prepare participants to qualify for the Junior Guard minimum requirement for a four-lap swim. We will be running two sessions, February 7 – March 3, 2022, and March 7 – March 31, 2022. Families can register for one or both sessions. Registration will open on January 3rd, and we are going to cap participation in this program at 20 swimmers per session. For more information on this and all programs, please visit our website www.evolutionswim.com.

2022 will see our traditional programs continue. Most of our programs sold out last year so we encourage Nellie Gail Ranch residents to register early.

We look forward to a great 2022 and to having your children participate in our programming.

Sincerely,

Felipe Delgado

Team Darkhorse

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

By Karen Robbins

TOY COLLECTION ROCKED, AND SANTA TALKED! On December 2 we were able (with thanks to our wonderful supporters) to deliver more than enough toys for every single child to receive one! Gift cards were welcomed by those too old for toys. DOD Covid guidance disallowed gathering indoors, so the toy handouts were done on the parade deck at Camp Pendleton. We set up "Santa's workshop" and the Marines drove in an orderly line up to the toys, where we greeted them, counted their children, noted their ages, and selected their toys. The Marines themselves were just as thrilled as the kids. As always, awe and surprise and thankfulness were on all of their lips.

MARINES OF THE QUARTER On that same day, Team Darkhorse presented $150 grant checks to 2 Marines of the Quarter and 2 Non Commissioned Officers of the Quarter in a small ceremony orchestrated by the Command. Gentlemen from OC Woodworkers Association, a long standing partner, were able to contribute too.

From the Battalion's Facebook page: "In recognition of our NCO of the Quarter and Marine of the Quarter Awardees, as well as the outstanding Marines from each Company, Laguna Hills Team Darkhorse joined us in recognizing their achievements. Mr. Ed Smith, a veteran himself, with the Orange County Woodworkers Association also presented the Marines with a custom handmade wooden boxes with the USMC Logo engraved on them."

HOLIDAY FAIR DECEMBER 5: Santa Claus also brought Team Darkhorse a surprise in the form of residents Liz Gray and Michele Boyd- Sparks. These ladies brainstormed and organized a Holiday Community Fair, bringing together 20 local artisans and vendors at the LH Community Center. Following the event, they presented Team Darkhorse with a check for 15% of total sales on the day! These ladies and their local vendors did all the work, publicized the event and even created a sign for Team Darkhorse. "We are happy to help and also got to help the small businesses while bringing the community together."

TEAM DARKHORSE

3D Battalion, 5th Marines, 1st Division Support Committee is the (all volunteer) IRS 501 (c) 3 non profit org formed in 2010, following the Laguna Hills City Council formal vote to adopt this Camp Pendleton Infantry Unit. Emergency Preparedness

PROVIDING AID AND THE GOOD SAMARITAN LAW

By Dr. Kenneth S. Cheng

Questions of liability and fear of being sued frequently arise when volunteering or providing aid during emergencies or disasters. What liabilities exist in providing aid? Might I get sued if I make someone worse? What happens if I decide not to provide aid? How does my level of training (or lack of training) play into my liability? These are all legitimate questions that will be answered here, but first some background information.

The Good Samaritan Law of California, established in 1980, provides that "no person who in good faith, and not for compensation, renders emergency care at the scene of an emergency shall be liable for any civil damages resulting from any act or omission." The purpose of this law was to protect those who voluntarily provide aid or assistance during an emergency, regardless of level of training, as long as one acted in a reasonable manner. This statute was recently tested by the legal case of Alexandra Van Horn v. Lisa Torti.

On November 1, 2004, Alexandra Van Horn and Lisa Torti (both close friends) left a bar at 1:30 AM in separate cars. Van Horn was driving her vehicle 45 MPH when she lost control and crashed into a light pole. Torti, following behind in the second car, witnessed the accident, stopped and proceeded to render aid to her friend. According to court testimony Van Horn's injuries were worsened by Torti yanking her "like a rag doll" from the wrecked car, rendering Van Horn a paraplegic. Torti testified that she saw smoke, feared the car was "going to blow up" and quickly removed her friend from the dangerous situation. The smoke was later determined to be either from the airbag or radiator as no fire or explosion ensued. Torti was ultimately found liable for the injuries to her friend, and furthermore, Torto was not protected by the California's Good Samaritan laws.

The California Supreme Court agreed with the appellate court's ruling against Torti, that immunizing rescuers from liability applied only to individuals providing emergency medical care, citing the placement of the Good Samaritan statute in the section of the Health and Safety Code dealing with emergency medical services. It was determined that Torti's actions of removing Van Horn did not constitute "emergency medical care". At the time, this ruling significantly affected the willingness of volunteers to render aid to any victims during an emergency. How was a layperson to determine if a victim required medical or nonmedical aid? Was removing a person from a dangerous situation a medical aid or a nonmedical aid? Because of this ruling, many started to second-guess their role as a rescuer, and many volunteer rescuers were without liability protection. The repercussions of this ruling could have had dramatic and long lasting effects.

Recognizing the significance of such a ruling and how it would detrimentally affect volunteering or assisting in emergencies, the California Legislature passed Assembly Bill 83 which has amended the Good Samaritan statute so that "no person who in good faith, and not for compensation, renders emergency medical or nonmedical care or assistance at the scene of an emergency shall be liable for civil damages resulting from any act or omission other than an act or omission constituting gross negligence or willful or wanton misconduct." Additionally, to emphasize the importance of this new provision, the Legislature added that the legislative intent is "to encourage other individuals to volunteer and to assist others in need during an emergency, while ensuring those who provide care or assistance act responsibly." It should noted that you are only encouraged to act; there is no requirement to provide aid as California, unlike other states, does not have a "duty to act" statute.

So am I covered under the Good Samaritan Law? Yes. If you should come upon an accident or emergency situation, you should feel free to provide aid (medical or non-medical) without fear of liability. You are covered provided that you:

- Act in a reasonable manner and provide "due care",
- Voluntarily provide the aid without compensation or reward,
- Do not have a current compensated relationship with the victim (doctor-patient, babysitter-child, etc.),
- Are not in a medical facility.

What happens if my care or aid isn't perfect? The aid you provide is not expected to be "perfect." The circumstances often cause adrenaline to be elevated, thus elevating stress and anxiety. These situations may cause your CPR technique to be non-ideal, you may forget to give two breaths, bandage incorrectly or any number of other potential issues. These mistakes or omissions, as long as they are reasonable for the circumstances, are completely forgivable and not generally considered liable actions. On the other hand, if you are "grossly negligent" in your actions, such as if you have never been trained in CPR and you proceed to use the heel of your foot to do chest compressions, this would fall outside of the realm of "reasonable" and thus you could be held liable.

What if I don't want to do anything? Because California does not have a "duty to act" or "duty to rescue" statute, one cannot be held liable for not assisting. You may want to ask yourself, however, if you were the victim needing assistance, would you want others around you to NOT act?

I have been trained to do "X", but I didn't do it. Am I liable if the victim is now worse? Again, volunteer rescuers in a Good Samaritan situation are not compelled or mandated to perform any actions, even if you are highly trained in those actions. You would not be held liable in this situation.

I have no formal medical or rescue training. Does this make me more liable? No. Should you decide, in an emergency situation, to aid or assist a victim, as long as you provide care in a reasonable manner, then your risk of liability is zero. One way to view this is to ask, "How would someone else with the same level of training act in a similar situation?" If your actions are similar, then you need not worry about liability. (Continued on next page.)

In addition, he is a volunteer Sheriff's Deputy where he is the SWAT Tactical Physician and a member of the Search and Rescue-Technical Rope Rescue team. Although Dr. Cheng is knowledgeable in the area of the Good Samaritan Law, he is not an attorney, nor does he play one on TV. Visit with Santa

I work as a health and safety officer at my company's plant and one day while at work, one of the workers started to choke. Would I be covered by the Good Samaritan Law if I assisted?

Your position is such that you are likely expected to provide aid or assistance in these situations. If this is the case, you would not be covered by the Good Samaritan law (but likely covered by your employer's liability insurance.) In this circumstance, you would want to follow the protocols established by your employer and assist to your level of training.

In summary, the Good Samaritan law, and its recent revision, is designed to protect volunteers who elect to provide emergency aid to others, regardless of whether it is medical aid or nonmedical aid. One does not need to fear liability or repercussions of legal action from providing assistance in an emergency situation. As always, you should act in a reasonable manner and within your scope of training, but you shouldn't hesitate to help even if you are not trained. Don't fear getting involved, because the life saved might be your own.

Nellie Gail Ranch Clubhouse

The Emergency Preparedness Committee continues with the quarterly Community Training. The topic of our next training will be on Water Preservation.

You will learn everything necessary to keep, store, and preserve enough water for your family for 30 days.

Saturday, December 11 was a wonderful and sunny morning filled with Christmas cheer at the Clubhouse. Many families arrived in holiday attire and excited to take photos and share their wish lists with our beautiful Santa and Mrs. Claus in front of the fireplace.

There were a lot of creative kids making crafts, and everyone enjoyed the train rides. The children received bells to wear upon entry, and there was plenty of hot cocoa, coffee, and cookies for all to enjoy. Many thanks to our Contributing Sponsor, Anvil Real Estate/Melody Smith & Associates and to everyone who donated a gift for Toys for Tots. Happy Holidays to you and your family, and may the New Year be filled with happiness and good health.

NCL in Paris

The Saddleback Valley Chapter of National Charity League (NCL), Inc. is a group of mothers and daughters who have come together in a commitment to community service, leadership development and cultural experiences. In November the young woman celebrated their 38th Annual Fashion Show and Fundraising event. This year's event, themed "NCL in Paris", co-chaired by Liz Stein and Paige Morris, included Parisian photo stations, gift baskets and opportunity raffle drawing, as well as wine pull. Over 350 family, friends, and community supporters attended the event that was held at Westin South Coast Plaza in Costa Mesa, California.

The event spotlighted the junior class NCL members who volunteer their time and energy in support of the local philanthropies that they have served and continue to serve over the course of their six years together in the organization. Despite the challenging year, the junior class, served its community with 808 hours of philanthropic service from 04-01-2020 to 11-30-2021. All proceeds from this event benefited 20 local philanthropies.

NELLIE GAIL EQUESTRIAN CENTER - UPPER BARN

Apple Cider Cream Pie

Active: 45 mins
Total: 3 hrs
Yield: 8 servings

Ingredients

Crust

1 cup all-purpose flour
1 tablespoon cornstarch
1 tablespoon sugar
1 teaspoon kosher salt
1 stick unsalted butter (cut into 1/2-inch dice and chilled)
3 tablespoons cold milk
1 teaspoon apple cider vinegar

Filling and Topping

2 cups apple cider
1 cup sugar
1/2 cup sour cream
1/4 teaspoon salt
4 large eggs
1 1/2 cups heavy cream
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon

Directions

Step 1

In a food processor, combine the flour, cornstarch, sugar and salt. Add the butter and pulse in 1-second bursts until the mixture resembles coarse meal. Combine the milk and vinegar and drizzle it on top. Pulse in 1-second bursts until the dough just comes together. Turn the dough out onto a work surface, gather up any crumbs and pat into a disk. Wrap in plastic and refrigerate until chilled, about 30 minutes.

Step 2

On a floured work surface, roll out the dough to an 11-inch round, a scant 1/4 inch thick; ease it into a 9-inch glass or ceramic pie plate. Trim the overhanging dough to 1 inch and fold it under itself. Crimp decoratively and chill the crust until firm, about 15 minutes.

Step 3

Preheat the oven to 425°. Line the crust with parchment paper and fill with pie weights or dried beans. Bake in the lower third of the oven for about 15 minutes, until the crust is barely set. Remove the parchment and pie weights. Cover the edge of the crust with strips of foil and bake for about 15 minutes longer, until the crust is just set but not browned. Press the bottom of the crust lightly to deflate it as it puffs; let cool. Lower the oven temperature to 350°.

Step 4

In a medium saucepan, boil the cider until it's reduced to 1/2 cup, about 10 minutes. Transfer to a bowl and let cool. Whisk in 3/4 cup of the sugar, the sour cream and salt, then whisk in the eggs.

Step 5

Pour the custard into the pie shell without removing the foil strips. Bake the pie in the lower third of the oven for 35 to 40 minutes, until the custard is set around the edge but the center is slightly jiggly. Let the pie cool completely.

Step 6

In a medium bowl, using an electric mixer, beat the heavy cream with the remaining 1/4 cup of sugar and the cinnamon until firmly whipped. Mound the cream on the pie, cut into wedges and serve.
